

The High Altitude Revegetation Workshop and Central Rockies Chapter of the Society for Ecological Restoration 2015 Conference

High Altitude Restoration Science & Practice

March 10-12, 2015

Colorado State University, Ft. Collins, Colorado

Call for Abstracts

The High Altitude Revegetation Workshop and Central Rockies Chapter of the Society for Ecological Restoration are calling for abstract submissions for the March 10-12, 2015 joint conference to be held in Fort Collins, Colorado. Deadline for submission is November 28, 2014.

With the broad theme of “High Altitude Restoration Science & Practice,” we are seeking high quality oral presentations and posters by practitioners, scientists, land managers, students and policymakers to enhance our understanding of restoration and revegetation in diverse ecosystems using a variety of methods.

The focus of sessions may include, but are not limited to

- Ensuring restoration success
- Revegetation techniques
- Mined land restoration
- Riparian restoration
- Restoration of species of concern
- Restoration challenges in the face of biological invasion
- Restoration of ecosystem services
- Restoration case studies

A plenary format will be followed with 15 minute oral presentations, including discussion. Authors will have the option of submitting their abstracts to be shared as either an oral presentation or poster display. Those abstracts not accepted for oral presentations will be considered for poster presentations. Submission should include a presentation title and an abstract following the format described on the next page of this document.
